KATSURAGI
Hotel & Golf Resort

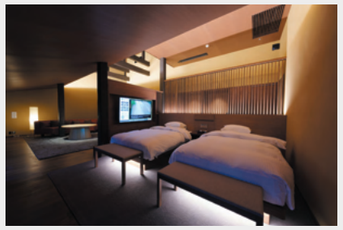

The Two Golf Resorts that are the pride of Japan.

Kawana Hotel
Kawana Hotel Golf Course

A Masterpiece by One of Japan's Greatest Golf Architects Seiichi Inoue. Established in 1976, this distinguished championship course is set in a region blessed with a mild, year-round climate. Designed by legendary golf course architect Seiichi Inoue, who shaped many of Japan's most celebrated courses, it is regarded as one of his final masterpieces. Every hole reflects Inoue's philosophy of strategic beauty, balance and timeless elegance - an experience to be savored by discerning golfers. The course is internationally recognized as the host venue of the LPGA Tour event, the Yamaha Ladies Open Katsuragi, where countless dramatic moments have unfolded over the years. Known as the stage for Japan's prestigious "Spring Queen" championship, Katsuragi offers golf fans and players alike the chance to experience a course etched deeply into tournament history.

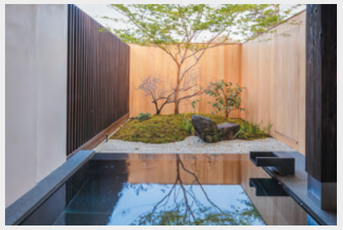

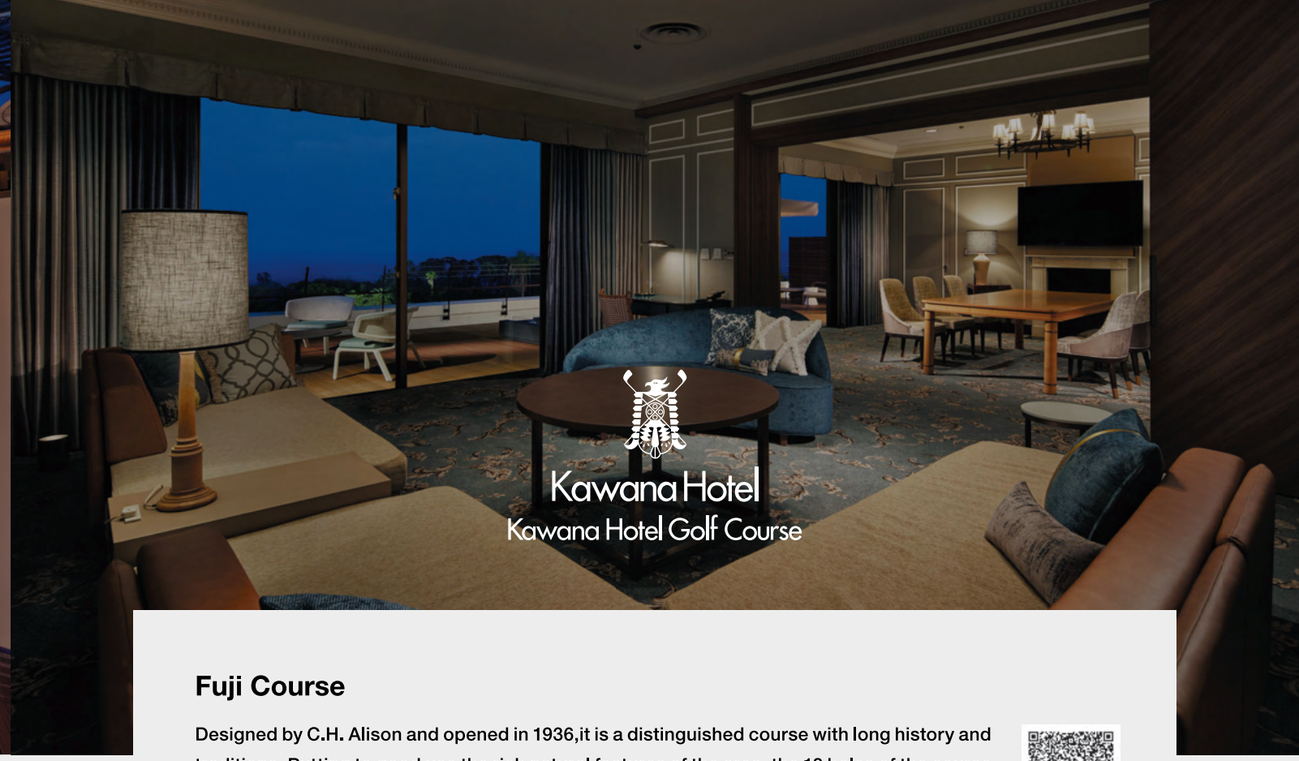

Three Beautifully Reimagined Suites, Blending Modern Comfort With The Memories Of The Past

Fuji Course

Designed by C.H. Alison and opened in 1936,it is a distinguished course with long history and traditions. Putting to good use the rich natural features of the area, the 18 holes of the course flanked by a variety of deep bunkers have earned considerable acclaim in and outside the country, never failing to fascinate the golfers. Experience a Top 100 course in the world.

Oshima Cuorse

Get on comfortable golf cart allowed on the fairways equipped with a GPS Navigation system and play at your own pace all the holes in one go without Course Attendant (caddie). The 18 holes are a truly grand location with the magnificent blue sea and the sky of Sagami Bay colorfully decorating the background.

A SWING THROUGH HISTORY.

At Kawana Hotel, the past lingers in the salt air and hand-carved wood. This 1936 cliffside retreat once hosted Marilyn Monroe and Joe DiMaggio's honeymoon, and still offers the same cinematic grace. Mornings begin with sun rising over the ocean and fairways on one of the world's top 100 golf courses, and end with sunsets steeped in old-world charm. Between rounds of golf and poolside memories, indulge in local flavors and timeless hospitality.
This isn't just a hotel—it's a classic that offers you an escape from the everyday.
